THE LAST DAY.

SEDALIA POINTS WITH PRIDE TO HER RECORD.

The Departing Horsemen are Unanimous in Saying this is the Finest Track They Have Seen—Notes.

After a week of perfect weather that comes tinged with the soberness of autumn, lending a coolness to the dry, hot winds of the middle summer, the Missouri State Fair closed its gates after six days of the best racing ever seen in the state. People have never seen the track, its realities and its possibilities, and they are not slow to express an opinion which in every instance has been highly flattering.

The directors of the association with their characteristic energy have begun arrangements for a great race meeting in October, from the 24th to the 29th. The programme has not been arranged but is now under consideration. The stakes and purses will be large and wholly sufficient to insure an immense gathering of horses. It is intended to have even better and faster horses than those which participated in the closing event. This is saying a great deal as the horses during the past week have been of unusual merit and the association points with pride to the records made on what might be technically called a green track. In October, however, the track will be at its best. Then the people can look out for lots of record smashing.

Most of the horsemen will leave the city to-night and to-morrow. Sam Fuller takes his string to Independence, Iowa. Others will go to Higginsville, Lincoln, Neb., Creston, Iowa, and Youngstown, Ohio.

Sedalia shakes hands with all her friends, and earnestly wishes that they will come and see her again in October, when she will make a still better effort to entertain them.

Yesterday's Races.

The unfinished 2:22 trot of last Thursday was completed yesterday. The Fayette people had banked their last dollar on wonderful King Herod and though he seemed to be out in the first two heats on Thursday yet he got down to his knitting and came in first on the third, fourth and fifth heats. The pneumatic wheel seemed to be a mascot for him. One of the most brilliant finishes ever seen on the track was made by King Herod in the fourth heat. Summary:

The 2:50 stallion race for $1,000 stakes was a fine one. There were seven starters, the fight being between a small Texas flyer named Comal, who is a great stepper for his size, and Dick Hartford. Comal commenced going ahead at the start in the first heat, and pulled the little pneumatic sulky under the wire a winner in 2:28.

Comal, Hartford and Fairwood pushed hard for the front in the second heat and made a great race in the finish. Ham, Jr., and Autocrat were flagged but an explanation to the judges showed that loose boots, etc., were the cause of the trouble and the distance marks against them were made blank.

Dick Hartford led the dance in the third heat and commenced to forge ahead at the second quarter. Comal was a good second, but went off his feet near the finish and Dick Hartford was first home in 2:25.

The fourth heat was a slow one, with Comal, Dick Hartford and Winston, the latter John Gentry's horse, struggling for the honors. Hartford took the heat in 2:34.

Dick Hartford took the lead in the fifth heat. Comal circled around him and came abreast in the last quarter, with Fairwood, beating the ground close behind them. The three led alternately in the last quarter. Comal got a great rush on him, however, and Hartford found the pace too swift, going into the air and allowing Comal to pass under the winner in 2:28.

The free-for-all pace for a $1,000 purse was one of the best races of the week. Telegram, Reflector, and a number of other good horses fought hard for the honors and created much excitement. Sam Fuller drove Telegram to a pneumatic sulky.

The horses were sent away in good order at the start and at the quarter pole were nicely bunched. After a spurt by L. C. Lee, Telegram took the lead and held it to the finish. Reflector and Maud P. crowded him uncomfortably for a time, but went into the air, then regained their feet and kept Telegram spinning until he went under the wire in 2:14.

The second heat was a glorious one for Telegram. At the first quarter he got caught in a pocket formed by Reflector, leading, Maud P. and William R. Telegram pulled around them in the remarkably fast time of 2:12½, the fastest heat ever paced on a Missouri track.

Joe Egbert won the fourth heat in 2:15½. It was a total surprise and not a ticket had been sold by the pool sellers. The odds against him were 50 to 2. Telegram was sixth.

The last heat was paced in 2:14½ and won by Telegram, with Reflector a good second. Summary:

The consolation pace for those who were not winners in the 2:30 pace of last Wednesday was one of the prettiest events that has taken place on the track. The purse was for $500. Beattie was distanced in the first heat while Juliet and Lillie were so evenly matched in speed that they looked as if they were working to the same sulky. Juliet, however, was the speedier and won three straight heats. Summary:

To-Day's Awards.

The final awards were made today and comprises only horses and cattle, and are as follows in the latter:

Grand Sweepstakes.

BEEF BREEDS.

Grand herd sweepstakes.—Best bull and four females, any age, of one breed, owned by one exhibitor or firm, Newton Long, silver medal.

DAIRY BREEDS.

Grand dairy sweepstakes.—Best bull and four females any age, of one breed, owned by one exhibitor or firm, Combs & Son, Booneville, silver medal.

The roadsters, saddle horses and draft horses were good ones and it was a hard matter for the judges to render a decision. Here they are:

Sweepstakes.—Roadsters.

Best stallion, mare or gelding, McCormick, Bowling Green, Mo., $50; second premium, W. H. McKinney, Mexico, $25.

Sweepstakes.—Saddle Horses.

Best stallion, mare or gelding, Kentucky Blue Eyes, owned by Holmes, Kansas City, $50; second, L. M. Monsees, $25.

Sweepstakes.—Draft Horses.

Best Stallion, mare or gelding, C. M. Musick, $50; second, C. M. Musick, $25.

The Flambeau Display.

The display of fireworks given by the flambeau club was just such an exhibition as was expected of this noted organization. The line of march was from Main to Fifth on Ohio and return until the stock of fireworks was exhausted. The Sedalia military band led the march, followed by the flambeau drum corps. Then came the boys themselves, with their mortars and various arrangements by which they exploded their large pieces. No body of men has been more successful in handling without accident to bystanders or property the immense amount of highly inflammable material than has the Sedalia flambeau club.

The members have reduced their work to a science. Last evening's display gave Ohio street the appearance of a great river of fire, and could one have been suspended over the city in a balloon the sight would have been most startling and beautiful. As it was, great showers of colored fires filled the air accompanied by bursting rockets and the loud report of dynamite bombs that rose hundreds of feet high yet shook the ground by their concussion. The streets were crowded from sidewalk to sidewalk and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

Premium Cake—Floral Hall.

The DEMOCRAT sampled some of the premium cake at the fair yesterday, through the kindness of Mr. R. G. Leaming, manager of the floral hall department, and his daughter, Miss Nellie. The display of cake was very fine. Mrs. Ben Blythe captured the ribbon on a delicious caramel nut cake. Mrs. Hartshorn carried away a couple of ribbons on chocolate and caramel cake. Mrs. R. G. Leaming won the prize on that most delicious confectionery elephant. Mrs. Henry Evans received premium for a beautiful sample of angel food, and the angel must be dainty who would decline to sample it. Miss Annie Leaming, in her early teens, captured the ribbon for ginger bread that would turn green the eyes of many a proud matron, for it was a delightful bit of sweet-bread. And so to the end.

The floral hall was much more interesting than usual this year. While there was a less show of iron and wooden ware, there was more of the handiwork of the wives and maidens, which possesses far more interest to the home loving citizen than does the great show of foreign made furniture, etc.

The stair furniture of the Sedalia planing mill was greatly admired.

Notes.

A barrel of red lemonade now goes for a nickel; weinerwurst, 10 cents a yard.

The boys of course played the "star green" and will weep bitter tears for six months.

The races at Independence, Iowa, commence Monday and last two weeks. The stakes and purses amount to $200,000.

Lieutenant George Burr, U. S. A., made a most valuable and competent clerk. George says, however, that it is much harder than army life.

R. D. Lancaster, ex-collector of the port of St. Louis under Cleveland is an interested attendant at the fair. He is owner of the mare Bertha.

"Con" Holmes, the cable car magnate and owner of the famous show stallion, "Kentucky Blue Eyes," is down from Kansas City with his wife.

The owners of the different winning horses were all paid their money to-day. The promptness of the association caused the horsemen to feel unusually good.

A race between Riley Medium and Telegram would be a sight worth seeing. The record of these two horses during the past week is sufficient to promise an exciting race should they be sent together on the kite track.

W. L. Tucker, agent for W. M. Flynn's programmes, and correspondent for the Horseman, is one of the most clever and courteous little gentlemen that has attended the fair. His kindness to the newspaper men will be remembered.

The press headquarters were built in a temporary manner with a view to something more substantial in the future. There are a number of inconveniences resulting from the location of the stand, which of course could not be avoided. It was suggested by the representatives of the different horse papers that another story be placed on the judges' stand for the press headquarters. This would make a capital place and it is to be hoped that the directors will consider it.

Will be Glad to see Him.

Detective G. C. Weaver will leave to-night for Chicago where he takes Eva Crow, the mulatto woman wanted in that city for robbery. Mr. Weaver is one of the most pleasant gentlemen that has visited Sedalia in a long time. He did good special service during fair week and the boys will be glad to see him when he comes again.

A SAD SUICIDE.

FRANK TURNER SWALLOWS A FATAL DOSE OF STRYCHNINE.

He Was an Employee of the M., K. & T. Blacksmith Shops—No Reason Assigned for the Rash Act.

Frank Turner, an employe in the M., K. & T., railroad shops, and, in common with a younger brother and unmarried sister, living with his widowed mother at 505 West Fourth street, committed suicide in his room at an early hour this morning by taking strychnine.

The announcement of this sad intelligence will prove a shock to the young man's companions at the shops and be the occasion of universal regret throughout local railroad circles.

No reason whatever was assigned for the rash act, and the motives that prompted him to wantonly take his life remain a mystery.

Mrs. Ann Turner, the young man's mother, stated to a DEMOCRAT reporter that he came home about 1 o'clock this morning. As he passed through her sleeping room on his way to his own upstairs, she said he asked her if she had enough meat for breakfast, repaired to the cupboard and ate a lunch, then retired to his room. She said he gave no signs of excitement, nor did anything during this whole procedure, to excite the least suspicion as to his intention.

Going upstairs to the room in which his brother, Adison, aged 21, likewise employed in the M., K. & T. blacksmith shops, lay sleeping, he undressed and went to bed. An hour later, his brother was awaken-sumed his old habit, though it is thought not excessively.

The Turner family came to Sedalia from Kentucky eight years ago where they have since continued to reside.

At the coroner's inquest this afternoon a verdict was returned in accordance with the above facts.

The jury was composed of J. H. Gooney, A. B. Hoss, F. Weeks, Geo. Karhs, W. H. Ritchie and R. Ritter.

Police Court.

W. P. Johnson, C. F. Hatfield, Geo. Wadleigh and Jack Wilson were fined $5 each for being drunk.

Alec Stout was up for loitering around the city. He was fined $15. Geo. Finick, Henry Leffner and Tom Smith got $15 each for trespassing but were given a stay to leave the city.

Alec Larrimore, charged with vagrancy, had his case continued until Aug. 22.

Stopped the Game.

Considerable amusement was created at a street game stand, at the foot of Ohio last evening, when one of the proprietors of the institution, claiming that he was being robbed by his partner, proceeded without ceremony to swipe his store of the goods, including cheap cutlery, brass jewelry etc.

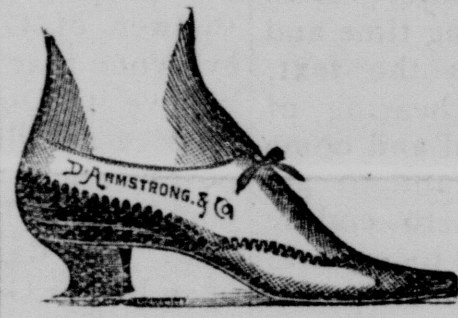

The manager of the joint protested against such a procedure, when, after using persuasion in vain, the services of a police officer were called in, the goods taken back and the affronted partner ordered to secure an attachment or quit the field. This put a stop to further protestation and the game went on uninterrupted.

Then Were Afraid of Him.

Detective Ben. C. Applegate, manager of the Mercantile Detective service, St. Louis, leaves for home at midnight. Mr. Applegate is well-known in Sedalia, having ed by hearing him shouting: "Good bye! Good bye!"

Rushing down stairs, Adison summoned the rest of the family, including his uncle, G. B. Turner, who happened to be stopping with his relatives, and then hastened for a doctor. But, alas, ere medical aid could possibly be summoned the unfortunate man's condition had become hopeless. Antidotes were administered but without avail. At 3 o'clock the victim in terrible agony passed away. When Dr. G. A. Russell arrived he asked the sufferer if he had been taking anything. "Look in my pocket" was the reply, and following out the instructions, a paper which had contained strychnine was found. The poison was bought of Mertz & Hale at 8:30 o'clock last evening, of prescription clerk Elmer Goudy.

When asked for what purpose he wanted it, Turner said he intended using it for killing rats. Dr. Russell said he took eight grains—enough to kill as many men.

For a half dozen years Turner had been employed at the M., K. & T. blacksmith shops. He was a good mechanic and was well liked by his companions. While in former years he had been a pretty hard drinker, he had abstained from intoxicants for the past several months until the present week when, it is authoritatively stated, he re-been here a number of times before and on every occasion doing more than ordinary work in his line. He is shrewd, obliging, always in the right place at the right time, and never lets his man slip through his fingers. A number of St. Louis crooks arrived in Sedalia to work the town, but left immediately when they learned of his presence. Come again, Mr. Applegate.

Sedalia's Big Fair.

From the Tipton Times.
Sedalia is wearing a smile from ear to ear this week, in consequence of the splendid success of her fair. Her mile kite shape track has been denominated "Sedalia's pride," and she may well be proud of it. It is beyond doubt the best and fastest track in the state, although very new, and when it gets thoroughly settled will be a "world beater." The racing this week has been most interesting and it is doubtful if finer fields of horses can be seen anywhere, as many as eighteen going in some of the races.

A Bald Knob Blessing.

Soon after the release of Taney county lynchers a minister from the adjoining county went over among the "stand ups" to engage in a little missionary work, says the Odessa (Mo.) Moon. About noon he found himself at the house of one of the yeomanry of that neck of the woods, and began scheming for a free dinner. He was invited to make himself "to him," and he did. The family consisted of a man and wife and the ever-present and everlasting, irrepressible small boy. After taking their seats the minister proceeded to ask the divine blessing upon the bounties, etc., and so on. Then the boy came to the scratch with: "Say, mister, do you always say that before you eat?" "Yes, sonny, I always ask the Lord to bless the comforts of the table. Don't your father say anything before eating?" "Yes, he says something, but it ain't anything like that." "Well, what does your father say?" "He says 'Godlemity, ole woman, what a dinner!'"

A Good Day.

Recorder Pilkington released 16 deeds of trusts to-day. The majority of them were on farms and no doubt many hearts were made happy by the lifting of the mortgage.

THE EVENING DEMOCRAT.

"I would earnestly advise them for their good to order this paper to be punctually served up and to be looked upon as a part of the tea equipage."—ADDISON.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Patrons of the EVENING DEMOCRAT will confer a favor upon the management by promptly reporting any irregularity in delivery or bad condition of paper from improper handling.

THE Nevada Stone club is making arrangements to attend the rally in this city in grand style.

THE Tennessee miners know how to fight if they don't know how to behave themselves like law abiding citizens.

THE Paris Appeal says at least 500 citizens of Monroe county will visit Sedalia on the 30th to hear Stevenson and Stone.

THE unfortunate condition of affairs in Tennessee is the result of a bad system of prison management made worse by an incompetent governor.

GREEN county can well afford to pay $100,000 for another railroad, says the Springfield Leader. Springfield would get that much out of the road the first year.

THE Saline county teacher's institute adopted resolutions strongly condemning the institute law. Superintendent Wolf's pet law does not seem to be a howling success.

THE purpose of the road convention is to discuss the best plan for building roads in Missouri, and at the same time take steps to increase public interest in the subject of good roads by showing how excessively costly are the bad ones.

WE have been talking about two hundred going from Moberly to Sedalia on the 30th, says the Monitor. It now looks like there will be four hundred. Everybody wants to go and will go. Moberly will be well represented.

THE DEMOCRAT desires to congratulate the Columbia Herald on the elegant new home it is about to build for itself. Evidences of prosperity like this shows that a deserving institution is properly appreciated, and is encouraging all along the journalistic line.

MR. SHELTON, of Windsor, was in the city yesterday to engage a special train of eight coaches to bring the Windsor democratic club to the Sedalia rally on the 30th. The club is coming four hundred strong in uniform, with banners and band, and also accompanied by an excellent flambeau club. Windsor is not as large as some other cities in the state, but her people have as much enterprise per capita as can be found anywhere.

A SMALL STORY.

The republicans point to their past record in Missouri and claim that if Warner is elected governor of Missouri farmers will raise larger crops than ever before, everybody will get rich and the state will be a Mecca for the world. They are now out asking from democratic voters a certificate of their ability to govern. Which reminds the Columbia Herald of a little story.

Once upon a time a citizen had in his employ a certain gardener who was notoriously dishonest. He stole fruits, flowers, vegetables, anything that was convertible into cash. Finally the citizen discharged him in disgrace. Years afterward the gardener applied to the citizen for a note of recommendation and this is what he was given: "The bearer is extremely skillful. He got more out of my garden than any employe I ever had."

Recalling the gigantic steals of the republican party when in power in Missouri it can be given a similar certificate. Republican office holders got more out of the state than any other set of people ever employed.

MISSOURI'S MAJORITY.

The mugwump Kansas City Star says:

"Governor Francis is preparing to reply to Major Warner. Doubtless he will do his best, but there is a good deal of curiosity to have him explain the causes that in a few years dropped democratic ascendancy in Missouri from 50,000 majority to 6,000 minority."

There has been a great deal of such foolishness published and some unthinking people have actually come to the conclusion that democratic ascendancy in Missouri is in danger.

This idea has gained ground because of the studied efforts of mugwumps to suppress all mention of the vote of two years ago.

Suppose Gov. Francis was elected by a plurality instead of by a majority in 1888.

He can point with pride and satisfaction to the fact that two years later the democracy of Missouri reached high water mark and recorded a majority of near 60,000.

Does this show that the people are dissatisfied with the democratic party?

On the other hand, it does show that the masses know that any reforms they hope to secure must come through the democracy and that the party which has been their faithful servant in the past still possesses their confidence.

The mugwumps may sneer at Francis as much as they please, but they cannot not disguise the fact that two years after he went into office his party received the magnificent endorsement of 60,000 majority.

The farm and home mortgage indebtedness is one hundred dollars less per family in Missouri than it is in Illinois, one hundred and twenty dollars less than in Iowa and four hundred and fifty dollars less than in Kansas. Missouri has been under democratic rule, the other states named have been controlled by the republican party.

The democratic papers of the state are treating Sedalia handsomely in their mention of the grand rally on the 30th. Sedalia wants to see a large turnout of the bright, genial, talented and industrious newspaper men of the state and will try to make things pleasant for them while they are in the city.

The Sedalia democratic club will have to hustle if it puts more men in line on the 30th than any of the visiting clubs. Several towns propose to send from five hundred to a thousand voters.

A Fine Place.

"The Diamond" saloon is located at 115 West Second street and Mr. Tessmer will be glad to see all his old friends. He has a fine lot of cigars and some of the finest brands of wines and liquors to be found in the market.

THE CAMP MEETING.

A GOOD ATTENDANCE AT ALL THE SERVICES.

Much Interest Being Manifested in the Able Discourses that are Being Delivered.

The adventist camp meeting at Forest park is having a large attendance and it will be larger after today.

Elder W. D. Hyatt, the president of the conference, spoke at 3 p. m. yesterday. He took for his text, James 1:12, and said:

In our Bible study on the sixth of Romans this morning we learn that the Christian is to be freed from sin. But says one, "If that means for me to be in a condition where I am not sinning I hardly expect to reach that condition." Well, if you expect to sin you are apt to do so and as long as you indulge this idea you are apt to practice it; but I believe God expects us to enjoy better things than this. Now we do believe things because God says so, why not believe that it is his will for us to walk with him? The Psalmist says (Ps. 4:4): "Stand in awe and sin not." Turning to the New Testament we find in John 2:1 "My little children, these things write I unto you that ye sin not."

Why did John write this epistle? That we sin no more! But, "If any man sin we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous." I am glad for these words with all the rest.

Some want to reach a point where they are above temptation, where they will never be tempted to do wrong things. An individual said to me: "These things which you have been speaking about are good and we would like to enjoy them, but we do not know how to get time." I tried to find out what was the matter and found some certain sin was bothering them, and they wanted, as it were, to take a bound from the plane where they were to that point where they would never have a desire to commit that sin. The text says "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation." Endure is to sustain or resist for a long time and I get this thought from the text, there is an enduring or bearing of temptation—to withstand and come off victorious. Some want to get where they will not have to endure—didn't the Savior have to endure? Was not he "tempted on all points like as we are?" Each one though thinks that his own temptations are peculiar. Not like the temptations of any one else, but Jesus was tempted on all points; and being thus tempted he is able to succor all those who come to God.

Our christian experience depends upon our knowing Him, Jno. 17:3. "And this is life eternal that they might know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. 'This is the knowledge which God wants us to know. The point of all points is for us to know God and unless we have a personal acquaintance with him, and know God and Jesus Christ as the Son of the living God, and as a Savior I put it closer as our personal Savior, we will never reach the pearly portals of the kingdom of God."

1 Cor. 10:13 says, "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that we may be able to bear it." "If we do not know the God of the Bible we do not know God at all—we are to know Jesus Christ for what? Just what he says in his word. He came to save his people from their sins. Do you personally know him as such? There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man and he has promised we shall not be tempted above what we are able to bear, but do we know that? We resist temptation time and again and, may be, then succumb to it, but do you know for a fact that he will not let you be tempted above that you are able to bear? "God is faithful." Is he faithful to you? If we know him as such, we know something of the knowledge of the Lord and can trust him for power to overcome. But if we don't know him this way, there is something wrong with our knowledge of God.

But some want to get to the point where they will never sin again—where they can boast of it a little. Micah 7:18, 19, says the Lord will subdue our iniquities. When anything is subdued, it is brought into subjection, is brought under control. The Lord says, I will control your sins, I will bring them into subjection if you will let me. We have tried so long to subdue our own sins, we have about become discouraged. We never can do it; but I am glad to know that there is one in heaven who can do it and will do it too. Just try it.

But I know this also; the Devil is afraid you will become acquainted with God while you are at this camp meeting; and I hope some of you will get such an acquaintance as you never had before. But Satan will dispute every inch of ground and will hinder you if he can. We read in Mark 4 of a sower who went out to sow. In verse 14, sower soweth the word. It is compared to a grain. When we sow seed we expect harvest; and the word of God is going to bear fruit also. Isaiah says, chap. 55:11, "It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it."

The word of God is going to fall on various kinds of ground; some will bear fruit and some will not. Some fell by the wayside and the fowls of the air came and devoured it. Satan would get it away as soon as possible for fear it would bear fruit. He is going to do the same kind of work here. The Lord wants us to become acquainted with him, but the devil will prevent it if he can.

We have a Savior who is able to save unto the uttermost (margin evermore), Heb. 7:25. Do we know this? That is the question, "Do we know it." If we know God in this way, we ought to praise him for it; if not, we have something to seek him for.

God has but one way to save men and is not that "to the uttermost?" He came to save "his people from their sins." Is not that God's way to save men and if not what way does he save them? If we don't know him to save us in this way, there ought to be fasting and seeking God in the right season, that God may be with us here. He will be with us. He will walk up and down in this camp grounds but you remember in one crowd where they thronged him and pressed him, there was but one person who touched with the finger of faith and received the word "Daughter be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole." So with us, if we touch him with the finger of faith there will be healing of our souls. "Lo I am with you always." He is here to-day and I thank him for it.

The power of God to save us in his gospel. The gospel is the "power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." Do you believe it? Do you believe for yourself? I am glad that the Lord proposes to help us, and let me exhort you in Jesus' name, get rid of your sins! Oh, dare you lay your soul open before God like David and say, "search me and see if there be any evil way in me?" or is there some pet sin still clinging, hanging in our soul? But we must let it go if we would go through to the kingdom of God. There is joy and peace to many a soul that that soul never knew. Do you want such peace to-day? You can have it if you will only take it by faith at the hands of the Saviour. Give yourselves to Christ and take him in return, and with him take peace and joy.

Cheap Homes for Millions.

In order to meet the constantly growing demands which come from every quarter of the north, east and west, for reduced rates, to enable the farmer, the emigrant and the capitalist to visit the southwest, and particularly Texas, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway have determined to sell tickets on August 30th, September 27th and October 25th, from points in the north, east and west to all points in the state of Texas, at the extremely low rate of One Fare for the Round Trip, good to return 20 days from date of sale.

The reports which come from Texas of the prodigious prospective yields in the crops for the present season, as well as those for several previous years, together with the severity of the winters in the northern and western states for several years past, will induce many to locate on the sun-kissed prairies of this favored land during the coming fall. Now is your opportunity, grasp it while it is yet within your reach.

The Old Timers are not In It

While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paragoric and Laudanum, without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved.

COAL CREEK.

Gen. Carnes Succeeds in Relieving the Beleaguered Fort.

MAJOR CARPENTER AMBUSHED.

Three of His Men Killed and Several Wounded—The Miners Lose Two Killed—
The Return to Knoxville—The Trouble Not Yet Over.

COAL CREEK, Tenn., Aug. 20.—The battle of Coal Creek is at an end. The soldiers are victorious for once in the mining troubles. The state's honor has been upheld.

When Maj. Carpenter turned into the mountains at Offutt with his 125 brave men the night was perfectly dark. Although the major was familiar with every bypath in the black wilds, it was found difficult to keep the direction as not even the stars were shining. Consequently progress was slow.

After a while four men appeared and offered to guide the party. Maj. Carpenter reluctantly accepted the offer and the march was again taken up and at a better speed. Between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday morning, while entirely unconscious of danger, the men were fired upon from behind. The miners lay behind a stone ledge. Their broadsided mowed down Volunteers John Walthall and Bush Givins, both of Knoxville, and wounded Volunteer Tom Carter, also of Nashville. Maj. Carpenter's men returned the fire and fought bravely, but retreat was necessary, the men fighting all the way. The volunteers fell back to Clinton, six miles, reaching there at noon.

In the meantime Gen. Carnes had established himself at Offutt to await daylight. With the first streak of dawn the advance on Coal Creek was begun.
The miners fired over their heads from the mountains, so that the bullets could be heard whistling by the soldiers. The soldiers returned the fire. At noon Gen.
Carnes captured a band of miners. They were released on promise to deliver Capt. Anderson, who was lured from the fort the day before.

At the appointed hour nothing was to be seen of either Anderson or the miners. Then Gen. Carnes entered Coal Creek. There he found that a desultory fight had been going on between the troops and the miners at Fort Anderson all day. The miners surrendered at 4:30 p. m. and Gen. Anderson was restored to his command and peace was declared.

After reaching Clinton Maj. Carpen-ter's men, although they had not slept nor eaten for twenty-four hours, went by train directly to Coal Creek and reported to Gen. Carnes as he marched into town. They were then sent to Knoxville with their dead and wounded.

A representative of the Associated Press has been in Clinton and Coal Creek all day. The situation has been of the gravest nature and at any moment bloodshed was likely to occur.
At present the town is quiet and there is little doubt but that Gen. Carnes and Gen. Anderson can hold it without serious trouble.

A brief engagement took place in the northwestern part of town between Col. Sevier in command of the Chickasaw guards and about 300 Yellow Creek miners, whom they encountered on the hills. The miners were routed and several wounded. Two of the Chickasaw guards were also wounded.

Arrival of the Dead.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Last night a special train bearing the volunteers who were killed in the battle at Coal Creek yesterday, three men who were wounded and 123 volunteers who went to the front Thursday night rolled into the depot. Three thousand people were gathered about the station and the excitement was higher than at any time since the trouble began.
When the train stopped the men, who bore every evidence of actual service on the field of battle, poured out of the coaches and formed in a line through which two of their dead comrades were carried in military style. The company formed with arms reversed and marched behind the remains of the dead volunteers to the courthouse.

Not until the arrival of this train was it possible to get a correct statement of the incidents leading up to it.

Five men were killed in all. John T.
Walshall, of this city, a railway clerk, aged 22; Bruce Givins, a farmer of Knox county, aged 39, and a militiaman of the Second regiment, name unknown, supposed to be from Chat-anooga, died in the service of the state.

Thomas L. Cart, a lawyer of this city, shot through the groin; injuries may prove fatal.

Samuel G. Heiskell, a prominent lawyer and democratic politician, slightly injured.

John Milton, a laborer, slightly wounded.
Two miners, George Miller, of Coal Creek, and George Neil, of Oneida, Ill., were killed, and one, John Wilson, of Coal Creek, was slightly wounded.

J. M. Gant, a business man of this city and one of the volunteers, was badly injured by falling over a ledge of rocks.
The battle commenced at 6:30 yesterday morning and lasted nearly half an hour. Four of Col. Woolford's soldiers, who were along with the Knoxville boys, were captured, but were soon retaken.

The volunteers and 100 soldiers of the Second regiment reached Offutt, a small village four miles this side of Coal Creek, about 11 o'clock Thursday night. After thoroughly discussing the situation and conferring by wire with Brig.-Gen. Carnes, it was decided to go at once to the relief of Fort Anderson.
Maj. D. A. Carpenter, who soldiered in that vicinity during the war and is thoroughly acquainted with the topography of the country, took command of the men. They left Offutt about 2 o'clock and went across Walden's ridge by a circuitous route, so as to reach Fort Anderson from a point farthest removed from the village of Coal Creek. The night was dark as pitch and the loneliness of the road was depressing. The sides of Walden's ridge are very steep and covered with huge boulders and ledges of stone. Over these obstructions the brave fellows, many of whom had never been in the mountains, climbed and descended. Their clothing was torn and their hands and faces were scratched by the brambles.

Just after they started down the mountain on the north side toward Fort Anderson the men were divided into three squads, under command of Capt. W. L. Hedgerwood, Gen. D. D.
Anderson and Col. S. L. Woolford respectively. Soon afterward three men, all uniformed and claiming to be friendly to the soldiers, appeared and offered to pilot the regiment down the mountain. Without suspicion the troops followed them into a well-planned ambush.

Hedgerwood's men were in front at a point within a quarter of a mile of Fort Anderson. The firing commenced from behind great ledges of sandstone on a spur of the river overlooking the valley where the men were marched. The stars and stripes at Fort Anderson were in full view and the men were feeling relieved at the near approach of the fortifications and were joking with each other when bullets began whizzing about their ears.

Hedgerwood's men had passed the ambush before firing commenced and they received a volley of bullets in the back. Cart, Walshall, Givins and Heiskell were all in this party. The other companies faced about at once and opened fire on the ambush.

As the firing became general, men seemed to rise up from behind every stump and stone in sight. They were all well armed and greatly outnumbered the military. Seeing that the odds were against them, they were ordered to retreat and the long march over the mountains to Offutt was commenced again.

The dead and wounded of both sides were left on the field of battle. The miners, after capturing four of Wool-ford's men, started on the retreat themselves, seeing that Carpenter was going rapidly in the opposite direction. The four soldiers were released and allowed to return to their regiment.

The regiment reached Offutt on retreat about 10 o'clock, thoroughly exhausted. They had eaten nothing since noon Thursday and were hungry as wolves. They notified Gen. Carnes that they were at his service if needed, and many plucky young fellows, thoroughly stirred up over the loss of three of their comrades, wanted to go to Coal Creek anyway. Gen. Carnes wired them that he could manage Coal Creek with his regiment, and they started around the country among the farm houses and ate their first meal in twenty-four hours. A squad of picked men returned to the battlefield and brought the dead and wounded into Coal Creek under a flag of truce.

KENTUCKY ELECTION LAW.

Doubt Thrown Upon Next November's Election.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 20.—There is a possibility, unless the governor re-convenes the legislature and the election law is re-enacted, that Kentucky's vote may not be counted for president. The Sims election law was passed by the legislature in precisely the same manner as the corporation bill, and the same objection as to its constitutionality exists. The governor, however, signed that bill, and though he has made no explanation on that subject, it is presumed that he did so because his attention had not then been called to the requirement of the constitution as to the passage of the bill. The best legal opinion is almost unanimous that the governor's construction of the constitution is correct, so that the presumption is rather against the election bill on that ground. There are so many considerations involved, however, that those interviewed on the subject preferred not to give the authority of their names to opinions formed without more mature consideration. All admitted, however, the grave danger that existed in the doubt as to the validity of the law under which so important an election is to be held. A leading member of the legislature was of the opinion that the governor would reconvene that body after a recess of three or four weeks to dispose of this and other important questions left open by the adjournment. The attorney's bill is among the important measures to which the governor's ruling fatally applies, and it is almost a necessity that that bill should be passed before the November election.

Famous Crooks Released.
LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Morning Post announces that MacDonnell and Hill, who were accomplices of Bidwell in the bank forgeries of 1873, have been released on condition that they leave the country never to return. Both started for America on being released. Hill is a snowy haired, harmless idiot, the result of his long imprisonment. MacDonnell, except that he is aged, looks well and is gentlemanly. MacDonnell told the story of his life in prison with vivacity. He said that for some months after the beginning of his sentence he felt stunned and dazed. Then he resolved to submit to everything and earn an early release. Three years later, being forced by a warder to lift a heavy load, he injured himself internally and was a year abed. He then became defiant and no longer submissive.

UNAFFECTED BY THE GREAT STRIKES.

Wheat Weak and Declining—Also Cotton—Business Good at St. Louis and Kansas City—Improvement in the South.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—E. G. Dun &
Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:
Later advices from the west promise rather better crops of wheat and corn, and cotton prospects are a little better, though neither yield will approach that of last year. With abundant supplies brought over, the outlook is so good that business distinctly improves and the prospect for fall trade is everywhere considered better.

The great strikes in New York, Pennsylvania and Tennessee, which call into service troops in three great states, appear to have scarcely an appreciable effect upon business as yet, and, although the interruption of traffic is threatened on many important railroads, stocks are generally steady or strong, closing but a small fraction lower than a week ago. More gold has gone abroad, but money is abundant and easy, and collections in almost all quarters are more satisfactory than usual.

Wheat has been weaker and declined three-fourths of a cent with western receipts exceeding 5,000,000 bushels in four days, while Atlantic exports were 1,500,000 bushels and sales here only 6,000,000 bushels. Reports of harvesting in spring wheat regions are more encouraging. Corn has advanced a cent on sales of only 3,000,000 bushels here, mainly because of possible interruption of traffic for western reports are definitely more promising, especially in Kansas and Illinois. Oats have declined only a quarter, but are a shade stronger. Oil is three-fourths of a cent lower and coffee five-eighths of a cent higher, with some speculative activity.

In cotton a further decline of a sixteenth has occurred and sales have been 598,000 bales, the actual movement at this season being insignificant, while crop prospects with the heavy stocks on hand tend to depress prices. Last week the quantity which has come into sight for the crop year rose also above 9,000,000 bales and the stocks of American here and abroad are over 2,300,000 bales.

Speculation in tin has made little change and buyers of copper are so slow that 11c is quoted, while lead is a shade lower. Iron mills at Pittsburgh will soon resume, but at present shipments of coke are the smallest for some time and business in window glass is not active.
At Cincinnati trade is quiet, but prospects fine, and withdrawals of whisky are unusually heavy. Fair activity is seen at Cleveland with healthy trade and rolled iron products very active and firm. General trade at Chicago is better than in any other year and collections better. Receipts of barley for the week fall one-half below last year's,
of dressed beef a third and of corn a fifth,
but increase appears in cured meats, cheese and lard, a third in cattle and wool and one-half in hogs, hides and four.

Business at St. Louis is generally satisfactory and at Kansas City good with large receipts of cattle, hogs and wheat. At Omaha dealers in dry goods and groceries are rushed and money is in improved demand. Improvement is also seen with brighter prospects at Little Rock and Nashville, and while trade is quiet at New Orleans, sugar is strong and active, but receipts of rice are light, the crop having been damaged by rains.

Western iron mills have not fully resumed, but the present demand for bar, plates, sheet and structural iron is very active and mills are full of orders.
Pig is unchanged, but a sale of gray forge equal to $7.84 at Birmingham is recorded.

Cottons are in great demand and firm, though the weather checked the week's sales.

NOT JERRY'S BRAND.

The Trichina Pork Sent to Germany Not Officially Inspected.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—In reference to the report cabled from Berlin to the effect that trichina had been found in American hams and bacon, Secretary Rusk, who is in this city, says: "We have not been officially notified that any hams or bacon bearing our government certificate of inspection contain any trichina. There have been meats which did not bear the government stamp but were certified by some of the German consuls in the United States which have passed into Germany. They are doubtless those alluded to in the dispatch. We have been unable to meet the demand of Germany for our inspected meats. They sell for 50 cents a hundred pounds higher than the uninspec-ted article. Germany has never refused our inspection. We have no objection to their inspection."

For Refractory Girls.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 20.—The matron and directors of the state industrial school for girls, at Beloit, object to having that institution used as a reform school for boys. The opinion was given at the request of Deputy County Attorney Waggoner, in relation to two girls from North Topeka, who were sentenced to the industrial school by Justice Marple. The matron refused to receive them, on the grounds that only the probate court or other court of record had authority to sentence girls to that institution.

Mrs. Hawley Chapman, wife of the demented actor, Jeffrey Hawley, is going on the stage and is now studying for the purpose. She will make her debut September 15 at New York.

LIZZIE'S DISLIKE.

Miss Borden's Bitter Hatred of Her Father Divulged.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 20.—The Standard prints the following story, which it states is worthy of more than usual credence, as it comes from Capt.
Orrick Smalley, chairman of the overseer of the poor. Capt. Smalley was enjoying his vacation at Craigville when the Borden murders were committed, and the next day after, while discussing the news from Fall River, he made a remark that it was impossible for the daughter to have carried out such a horrible deed.

"There were those on the piazza," said Capt. Smalley, "who did not agree with me." A stranger to whom the captain was talking was the one who related a conversation with Andrew J.
Borden, which has since opened the eyes of those who heard it. The gentleman, who is George W. Hathaway, a traveling agent, said that not long since, while he was out on one of Mr.

THE BORDEN DWELLING.

Borden's farms, the old gentleman, with whom he was acquainted, came out very much disturbed.

Upon being questioned he remarked that he did not take much comfort at home with Lizzie; that she would not eat at the same table with him, and that only that morning, when he accidently went into the room where she was eating, she got up from the table and left the room.

Hathaway also said that Mr. Borden told him with tears in his eyes, and further remarked that when he left the house Lizzie told him she hoped he would come home a corpse, and that probably he would be before long. Capt.
Smalley in relating this said he was thunderstruck, and not being acquainted with Hathaway, who told the story, he made inquiries concerning him. The captain learned that he was a reliable man residing in Fall River. His business is that of a traveling man, and he is prominently connected with one of the Fall River churches.

HIS LIFE WORK ENDED.

After a Career of Crime Fred Faulkner Faces the Hangman.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 20.—Yesterday afternoon Frederick Faulkner, alias Frank Decker, alias Frank Woods, was hanged for the murder of James Lannon on August 9, 1891, in Colfax county, N. M. The murder was a cold-blooded one. Lannon had accommodated Faulkner by allowing him to ride in his wagon. On the night of the murder, after Lannon had gone to sleep, Faulkner got up and brained him with an ax.
After robbing the body of its valuables Faulkner took Lannon's team and camping outfit and escaped. Afterward he was arrested at Springfield, Col.

Faulkner was a hardened criminal.
He was born in Quincy, Ill., afterward living in Hannibal, Mo. Lannon, whom he murdered, also came from Illinois, having lived at Bradford, Illinois.
Faulkner met his death coolly, refusing all stimulants and making no statement before dying.

OBJECTIONABLE PASSENGERS.

Train Refuse to Carry Switchmen Engaged For Buffalo.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 20.—A few minutes before the Michigan Central train for Buffalo left here at 12:15, a body of local switchmen composed of both night and day crews, waited on the yardmas-ter and informed him they could not handle the train if the switchmen on board, who were going to Buffalo to take the places of the strikers were sent on it. A little later an attempt was made to ship the men out on the Niagara Falls and Buffalo express, due to leave at 12:45 a. m., but the conductor refused to take his train out with the men on board and they were held here. It is said that an agent of the Vanderbilt system had secured the men, whom he had persuaded to go to Buffalo to fill the places of the men who were out. The men were sent over another road.

Ready to Go Out.
ST. LOUIS, Aug. 20.—The switchmen in the Big Four yards are uneasy. The Big Four is the only one of the Vanderbilt lines reaching St. Louis and really it forms the only outlet to the west of that vast network of roads in the east.
One of the switchmen told an Associated Press reporter last evening that the men were all ready to go out as soon as the word was given and tie up every eastern road entering St. Louis.

River Captain Dead.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 20.—Capt. J.
R. Kilgison, who for eleven years was pilot and captain of the steamer Annie Cade and one of the oldest and best known pilots on the Missouri river, died at his home, No. 511 Holmes street, about 2 o'clock yesterday from a complication of dropsy and jaundice. He was born in Kentucky November, 1843.

Drowned Himself in a Pond.

MEXICO, Mo., Aug. 20.—John Hitz, a German farmer aged 50 years, who lives three miles from Rushville, committed suicide by drowning himself in a pond near his house. No cause is given only that lately he sold his farm and becoming dissatisfied he paid $1,000 to get it back.

Mrs. Maybrick to Be Free Soon.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—It is expected that Mrs. Maybrick will soon be released from prison. It is understood that both Sir Charles Russell, the new attorney general, and Mr. Asquith, the home secretary, are in favor of her release.

Dr. Albert Kimball, a Well Known dentist of New York, has committed suicide.

BURDEN OF WAR.

Buffalo Taxpayers Object to the Expense of the Militia.

DON'T LIKE NEW YORK DICTATION.

The Militia Will Stay For Awhile, However—The Traffic Situation—Expected Strike of Firemen, Conductors and Trainmen.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 20.—A committee of twelve taxpayers, living in the vicinity of the railroads where the strike is in progress, called upon Sheriff Beck for the purpose of protesting against the great expense of holding the militia here when in their opinion there is absolutely no need of it. Michael Martin, of 799 Elk street, the spokesman, stated that they came to ask that the national guard be removed, not to-morrow or the next day, but to-day unless Sheriff Beck could find some way of footing the bill other than by compelling the taxpayers to foot it.

"We are speaking through our pocket-ets," said Mr. Martin. "We have been right over the ground and protest that there is no need of the militia. One policeman is better than twenty-five men, and the national guard is no use at all."

One of the party asked Sheriff Beck if he could not disperse the soldiers, in that he had ordered them, in a minute.
A committee of four strikers called upon Mayor Bishop to present their side of the case. They suggested that Sheriff Beck be sent for, which was done. The spokesman of the party stated to the mayor and sheriff that the object of their visit was to ask them to recall the troops. Some time was spent in arguing, during which the railroad corporations were loudly denounced.
Sheriff Beck plainly told them that they must take into consideration what had been done and that they would say nothing of what might happen. "Cars have been burned and trains wrecked," said Sheriff Beck, "but, mind you, I do not say that any of the men who went out on strike are accomplices to this act."

The delegation argued from the standpoint that no harm had been done, that no acts of lawlessness had been committed, and that it was a useless waste of money to keep the great number of troops here at such an expense to the city.

"We do not want anyone to come from New York and dictate to us," said one of the men. "We are law-abiding citizens and are only demanding the right we are justly entitled to."

The men asked that the officials appoint a time when they can give them a decisive answer as to whether or not they would withdraw the troops.

"Now," said Sheriff Beck, "we don't know what will happen, but we know what has taken place. We know that on Sunday night the property of the railroads was set fire to and destroyed and that passenger trains were held and other unlawful acts were com-

AMUSEMENTS

The Spooner Company.

"Reddy's Luck" in the hands of the Spooner Comedy Co., drew a large audience last night. The company is a very pleasing one and the crowded houses are evidence of the fact that the people are well entertained.

The engagement concludes tonight with that strong and touching drama, "The Gally Slave," by the lamented Bartley Campbell. This stirring play is one of the best ever put on the American stage and is a prime favorite with theatre-goers.

"The Shetland Lass."

The play, "Shetland Lass," is an original sensational comedy, written especially for this company by the eminent journalist and playwright, John B. Musick, and is acknowledged to be his masterpiece. Twelve trained Shetland ponies imported especially for this production. At the Opera house Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 24th and 25th. Watch for street parade day of performance.

GREAT FOR DEMOCRACY.

General A. E. Stevenson Will be at Sedalia, Mo., August 30th.

From the Boonville Democrat.
At a meeting of the Boonville democratic club on last Monday night, it was unanimously agreed that the club attend the great democratic rally at Sedalia, on Tuesday, August 30th, in a body. The necessary committees were appointed to look after the arrangements, and every effort is being made to take a large number from this place. At least 250 are expected to go in a body, and as many more as can.

The members of the club will be uniformed, at least, to the extent of a Cleveland hat and a campaign badge.

The club instructed the secretary to send out a circular letter to democrats all over the county, inviting them to come to Boonville, on the morning of the 30th and join in with the club and go over to Sedalia in a body.

A special train will leave Boonville between 9 and 10 o'clock on the morning of the 30th, returning that night. Arrangements have been made for less than one-half fare for the round trip.

All democrats who are not members of the club and who desire to join its ranks, should notify J. M. Green, chairman committee on arrangements.

To Summer Tourists.

The season is at hand when the man of affairs, the man who, through the long winter months, has devoted his best energies to the tasks and problems of the counting room, the office, the pulpit, or legislative halls; when the matron and the maid, wearied of the long season of social gaiety or confinement in the school or lecture room, betake themselves to the sea shore, the mountains, the country or the springs, in search of pleasure and rest. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway has placed on sale summer tourist tickets at very low rates, with long transit limits, good to return until October 1st or 15th. Every variety of amusements and the most picturesque of surroundings are thus placed within the reach of all.

A Great Scheme.

From Harpers Young People.

Every year we get to know more and more about the moon, but still our knowledge is comparatively meager. According to an English paper, a French savant has a most wonderful scheme that will add greatly to our knowledge.

This Frenchman, M. Francois Deloncle, has in mind the Paris exposition of 1900; for Paris is going to have another marvelous World's fair then, provided all is well and there are no wars on hand. The scheme is to have a mirror of crystal, eight meters in diameter, which will weigh about eight tons, and by means of this gigantic thing to examine the moon in detail. The scheme has been discussed by many scientists, and they admit its merits, and declare that the scheme is not impossible. The only trouble is that no plan has yet been devised to place the mirror in position, which would have to be on a mountain two miles high in order to secure the proper atmospheric conditions. If this can be accomplished and a few other details arranged, a truly wonderful result is promised.

The moon is only 240,000 miles away, but in this glass would seem but five miles. Objects in the moon that are as high as a four-story house could be distinguished with ease, and then just think what wonderful things would be seen! It is interesting to simply imagine such a scheme, but to have it put into execution would be overpowering.

If the plan is carried out in all the details, and the results are as expected, the twentieth century will probably find us in communication with the people who are supposed to inhabit Mars. And after that—well, what happens after the twentieth century will not interest us, so it would be useless to speculate.

OBSERVATIONS.

BY PETRUCHIO.

Hell's Fire.

Well, I should say so! If there is anything in life to suggest it the past week has furnished reminders. Think of it! Eight thousand dollars paid for gambling privileges for one week.

I mistake me much if Sedalia is not making an error in permitting so much gambling at Association park on fair week. Many a man dare not trust himself to go where the wheel of (mis)fortune dazzles the mind with promises of big luck and realization of hell's fire. Of course, the man who expects to win his neighbor's money on the throw of a die is not altogether an honest man, but the temptation is one which should not be held open, and hell's fire will result. And think what sums of money are drained from the pockets of the people and carried away, all that a Sedalia institution may levy a tribute for its support in this way.

Why don't the papers howl? What business is it more to the papers than to the livery stable? The mission of my newspaper is to give me the news with intelligent comment. It has no right to dictate to me. There are sworn officers of the law whose business it is to execute the law against gambling devices. If they disregard their oaths of office why should newspapers, which are private institutions, interfere or meddle.

But I can't help but think "hell's fire" in connection with the subject.

On Wednesday morning an acquaintance of mine drew $141 and went to the fair ground. Another acquaintance bought him his supper Wednesday night. That's hell, too, for his poor wife and children, and entails a little hell to him, I do suppose.

But I did not start in to write about gambling, but to discuss orthodox religion. I can see no reason why the layman should not preach occasionally, if he has a text and something to say. My text is an old one, and what I have to say is not what can be designated as downright new. Yet it may be worth reading.

The bible, which I steadfastly believe and piously regard, speaks much in figurative language, and hell's fire is one of the strongest figures of speech it contains. Now, I shall not argue with any one as to whether hell is a real or imaginary place, so far as a sulphurous blaze goes; but there are but few sinners who have not a living fire of unhappiness, discontent, remorse, raging within their breasts that would be gladly exchanged for a few turns in the devil's lake. Religion is much misconceived. While it is doubtless necessary to appeal to the sordid nature of man to attract his attention to better things, yet selfishness is given too prominent a place in religious teaching. In fact, the grossest selfishness is constantly appealed to. "Be a Christian! There's money in it. It pays. Besides, if you don't you'll go to hell!" That is the tendency of the teachings of to-day. Let's get away from that. It pays, yes. But it is the satisfaction of duty done that the pay consists of. Neither fear of punishment nor hope of reward should actuate the soul—other than the reward of the master's approval.

The child most easily managed is that one with its affections most fully developed. Then my code of procedure in developing religious life would be to first attract attention to the goodness of the Master, and then train the affections to rightly appreciate Him. The rest is easy. The man who is good to get to heaven will not be in a fit state to enjoy heaven when he gets there, and that is hell in itself. While the man is good because it is his duty to be so will reap a rich harvest of happiness and content upon earth and never fret himself about getting to heaven.

Who cares for hell? Surely not the man who is conscious of having done the very best his nature, his temptations, his opportunities have permitted him to do. He may go to hell—I say may—but if he does he will be content, because he knows he deserves hell. But he will not go to hell, and if he does not secure the highest seat in heaven he will be duly thankful that he got no worse one.

But do not think I disbelieve in hell. I get lots of it, hence I believe in it. You get your share probably, and might get more if you were more capable of appreciating it. And if life is eternal, as I believe, the heaven or hell we live will be continued hereafter, and I am sure the one who has neglected his opportunities here will find that fact hell enough through all eternity.

My creed is simple. Here it is: Start right in this life, strive, and you are headed right through all eternity.

Start wrong in this life, and strive or be passive in your wrong, and you are headed wrong through all eternity, and figuratively you'll catch hell's fire.

COMING OVER.

A PROMINENT REPUBLICAN JOINS THE DEMOCRACY.

Col. A. W. Jones Tells Why He Cannot Support William Warner and the Force Bill.

Col. A. W. Jones, of Independence, has quit the republican party and come over to the democracy, and the Sentinel gives the following synopsis of a speech he recently delivered:

"The speech Saturday was an excellent one for those who may be unprejudiced, consider cool reasoning and logical conclusions. Col. Jones began his speech by stating his reasons for his change clearly. He said that he failed to understand how any Missouri republican could conscientiously support a party which threatened to again disfranchise a large portion of the people. He then took up the terms of the federal election bill proposed by President Harrison in his special message and urged again by the republican party in the national platform, and for an hour his explanation and keen dissection of its terms and objects was masterly.

The balance of his speech was devoted to the state campaign. He said that months before Warner had accepted the nomination for governor a conference had been held at Washington when a plan of campaign was outlined for Missouri. At this meeting the republican leaders saw the loss of New York very probable and determined to assault the Solid South, beginning, on Missouri. It was there represented by Warner that the strength which the people's party would draw from the democrats in Missouri would enable the republicans to carry the state by a plurality if money and unusual activity were brought to the fore and it was agreed, said Col. Jones, that the grand effort was to be made and Warner nominated and if Warner was defeated in Missouri and Harrison elected president Warner was to have a place in the cabinet. Col. Jones said that when Warner told the convention that the honor was unexpected and had not been sought he told what was not true.

Continuing Col. Jones spoke further of the state campaign. "Warner is never heard of," he said, "except in campaigns when he himself is a candidate."

Warner's Sedalia speech was taken up and discussed and in conclusion the speaker said, "Stone will down Warner easily enough and to have all in readiness he has already prepared his epigraph:

"Here lies Cherokee Bill,
Who was never known to have his fill."

The address received close attention and was cheered heartily throughout.

SPECIAL SALE.

Prices Lowered by An Enterprising Meat Merchant—Tuesday to be the Big Day.

Prices on meat will again take a slide when A. L. Lee, at 703 Ohio street, commences his special cash sale on Tuesday. He will give 8 pounds of good boiling meat for 25 cents; other meats will be cheap in proportion.

Mr. Lee expects to have these sales weekly and is making preparations for a big day Tuesday. His sales are to be conducted on a strictly cash basis and he offers his customers such bargains that they will no doubt prefer to pay cash therefor. Don't forget the day, Tuesday, August 23, at 703 Ohio street.

Unable to Serve.

Miss Blake, of Warrensburg, will not act as instructress at the county teachers' institute, as was announced, Mrs. Kate A. Peed, wife of Major Peed, of the Sweet Springs Herald, acting in her stead. Miss Blake has gone to the mountains in Colorado for the improvement of her health. While her refusal to accept the position was regretted, yet the selection of Mrs. Peed furnishes an able substitute.

The Great McKinley Bill.

Tennessee might put her idle convicts to work manufacturing tin-plate, following the Chester, (Ill.) penitentiary's example. With the workingman's tin dinner bucket and his wife's pearl buttons manufactured by convicts the McKinleyites would have much to brag about.

May Get Pulled.

It is quietly reported that the wheel of fortune gamblers will be arrested this afternoon. An inquiry into the matter by a DEMOCRAT reporter confirmed the report in a measure, and it is most probably correct.
